The SSA agrees to pay the above-mentioned organization 35% of this organization's weekly gross sales toward the group jackpot. Payments will be mailed to the address noted above at the end of each quarter.

The SSA reserves the right to change the percentage above should raffle fees dictate and with 30 days notice to the participating organizations.

Under the licensing house rules, there are no restrictions regarding who can purchase tickets (i.e. members and families) except that they must be sold to individuals residing in Saskatchewan

The SSA will contact all winners and pay all prizes. The participating organizations are responsible for their own advertising over and above the provided marketing the SSA has committed to.
